FUNERAL SERVICES

About Us

Located in the old villages of both Finedon and Corby, Margaret Rose Funerals is owned and run by husband and wife team, Tony & Maggie. Our aim is to offer a high quality, truly personal service at an affordable price. We believe that a 'good' funeral doesn't have to be the most expensive funeral, but simply one which is most suitable for you, your family and your loved one.

Pre-Paid Funerals

We are pleased to offer pre-paid funeral plans in association with E.P.S. Please do not hesitate to call us if you require further information.

Note: Pre-Paid Plans are subject to an admin fee of £220.00 (payable to E.P.S.)

Private Service Chapel

We have a small ceremony room in our Finedon office. Our ceremony room enables you to hold a funeral service without the timing worries created by a traditional crematorium chapel or church. The room will comfortably seat 35 people with room for a further 10 standing. There is also the option of on-site catering which we can organise for you. Please ask if you would like to view our ceremony room.

Some Questions Answered

On the following pages you will find a small selection of some of the questions we are regularly asked.

Do we have to have a religious minister?

No, there are other organisations available, such as Civil Funeral Celebrants and Humanist Ministers. You may also lead the funeral yourself or ask a family member or friend.

How much does a funeral cost?

Every funeral is different, so this question is difficult to answer without knowing exactly what you would like. Though the average total cost for a funeral in the UK is currently estimated to be around £3,900 - we are pleased to say that our prices are lower than this. However, please be advised that the cost can vary greatly depending on the location of the funeral as well as other aspects, such as transport and coffin choices. Following our funeral arrangement consultation, you will be given an estimate of the expected total cost. Please see the fees page in this leaflet for a guide to our prices.

What if we don't want a ceremony?

From time to time, we are asked whether it is possible to have a funeral without any form of ceremony or service, and the simple answer is 'Yes'. There are many reasons why someone might choose to have no funeral service but, whatever the reason, we hope that we can help you achieve your requirements. Please ask for details of our Direct Cremation Service.

Can we carry the coffin ourselves?

It is usually possible for family or friends to bear the coffin. If required, we will give you a quick briefing, either on the day or beforehand, to ensure that all are prepared and we will be on hand to help at all times. (It should be noted that some churches/cemeteries will not allow non-professional bearers to carry on their property due to Health & Safety regulations).

Where shall we have the funeral service?

Although many funerals are held in a crematorium or church you can, in fact, hold the ceremony anywhere you like (with the property owners permission). Perhaps you would like the service at home, in the garden, our Ceremony Room, in a village hall or favourite pub or any other place you feel is appropriate for the deceased.

Can we visit our loved one before the funeral?

Yes* - all we ask is that you make an appointment in advance so that we can ensure that a member of staff will be available.

*Chapel of Rest visits are not included in our 'Direct Cremation' or 'Simple Cremation' services.

What music can we have at the service?

Nowadays it is common for people to play music of all types during a service at the crematorium - some people have used recorded music, pipers, soloists, violinists etc - the choice is entirely up to you. It should be noted, however, that some churches may prefer organ music to be played.

We hope that you have found the above to be useful - however, please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any further questions.
